

Croatia

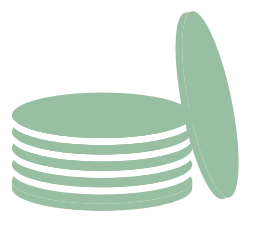

Travel to Croatia, possibly the best kept secret in the Adriatic! Croatia is a captivating European country boasting a year-round mild Mediterranean climate, rich cultural heritage, and stylishly cosmopolitan appeal. On average this sun-soaked land basks in a splendid 2,600 hours of sunlight each year, earning its acclaim as one of Europe's sunniest seaside settings. Embark on a Croatia travel package to experience the country's natural beauty including its stunning Mediterranean Sea views in the southeast, sprawling flat plains in the east and hills with snow-capped mountains to the north.

Area
21,851 sq mi

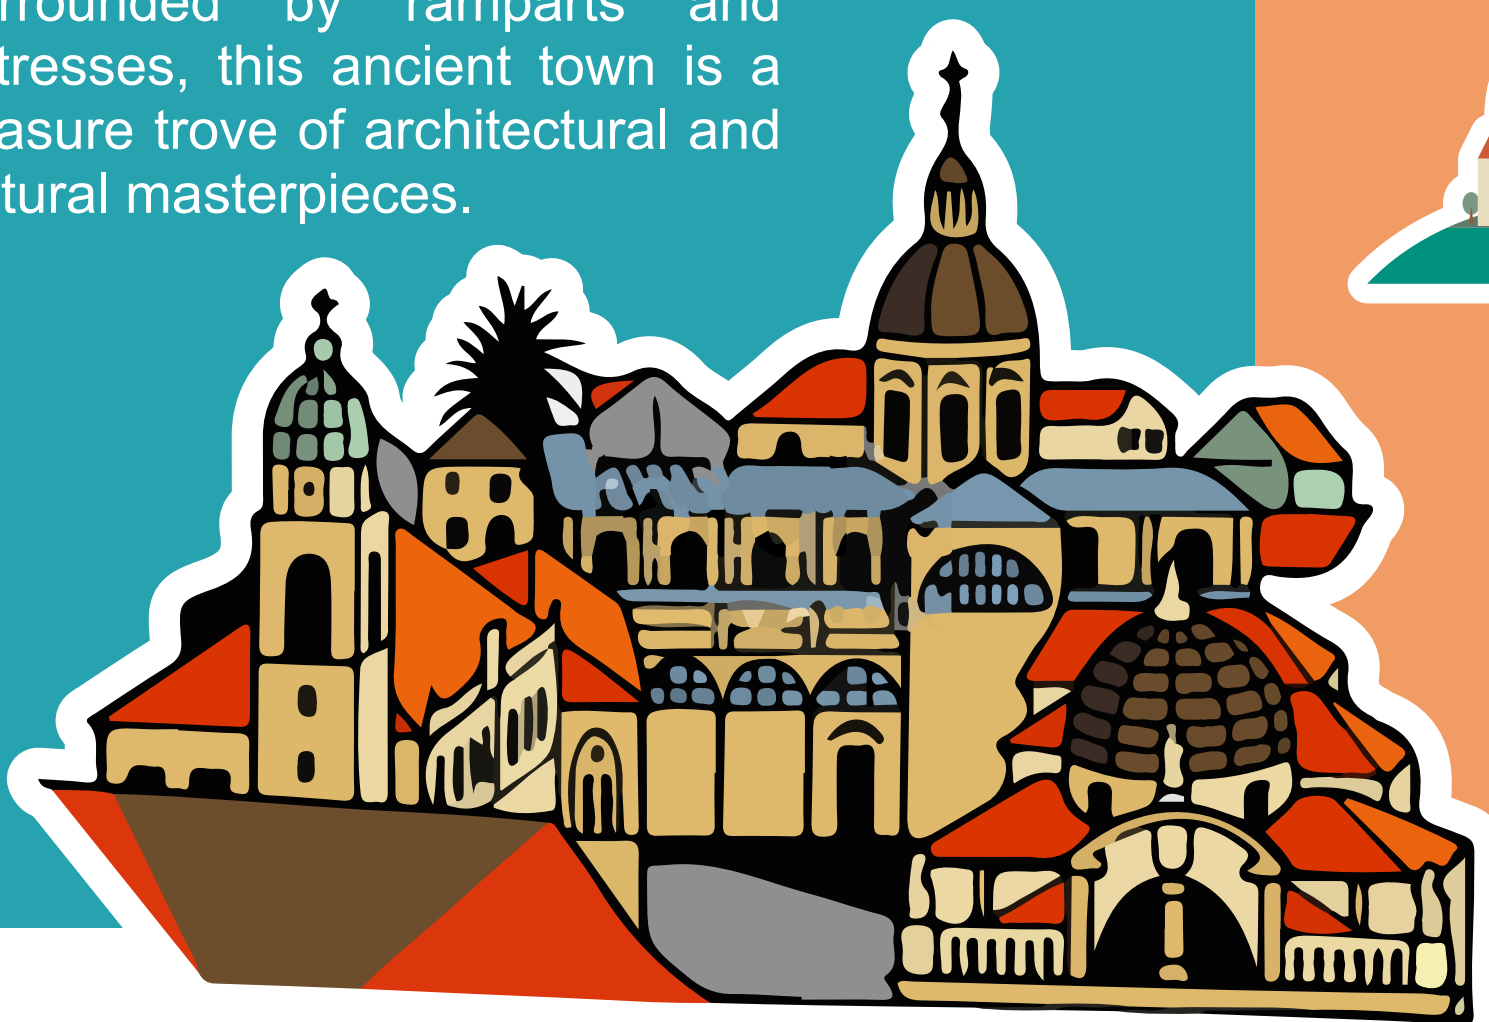

AC
B

Language
Croatian

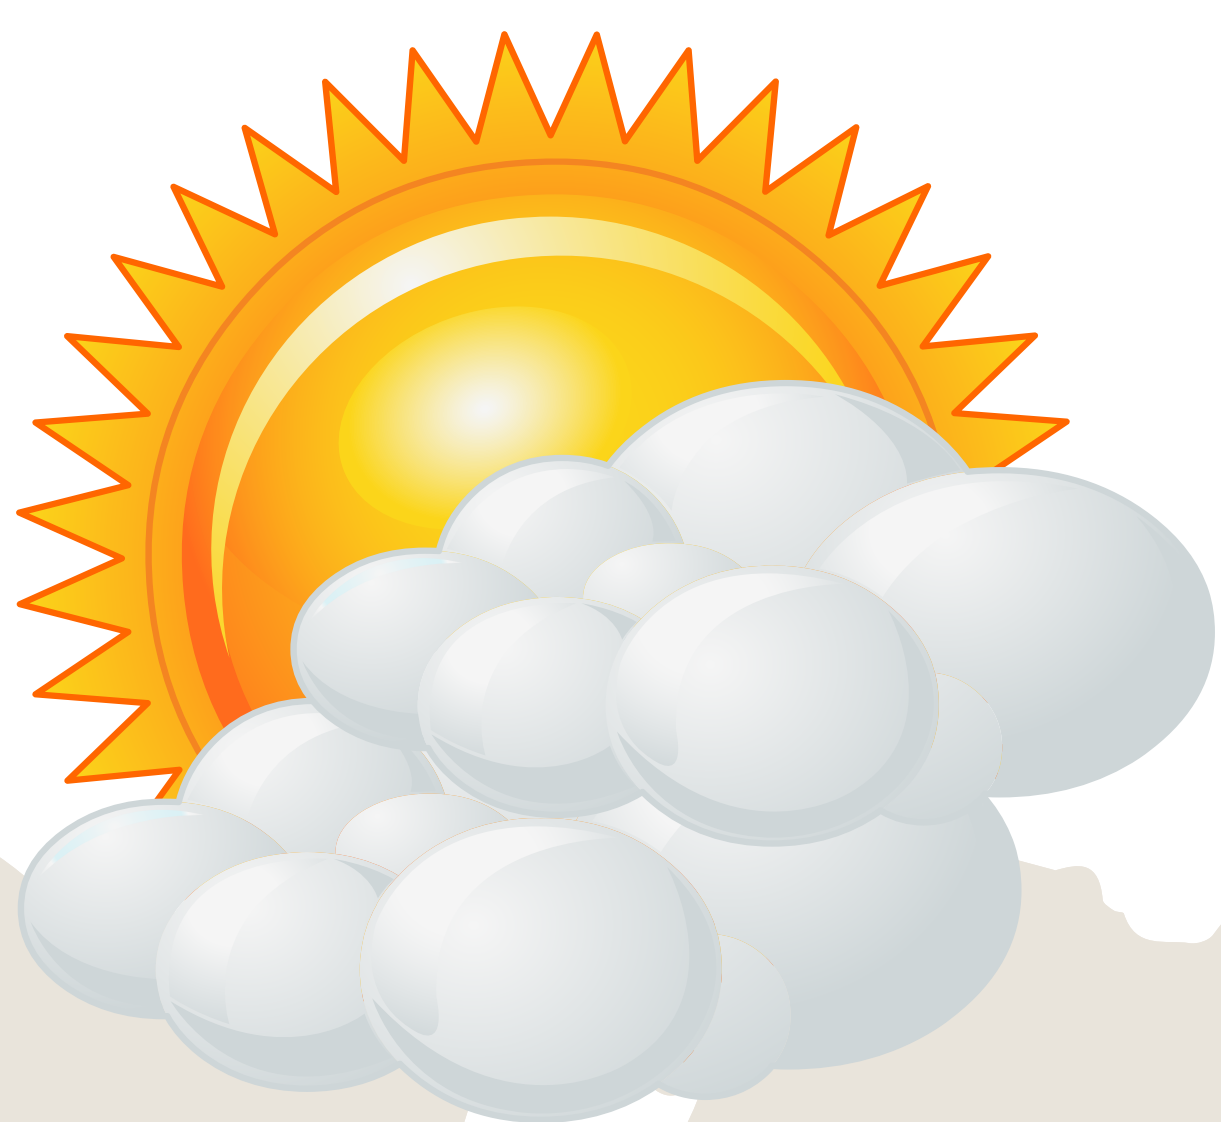

Currency
Kuna (HRK)

DUBROVNIK
UNESCO Cultural Heritage city. Surrounded by ramparts and fortresses, this ancient town is a treasure trove of architectural and cultural masterpieces.

The Capital Of Croatia
Located in the northwest of the country along the Sava River, Zagreb is the capital and the largest city of Croatia with a population of more than one million people.

Split
Discover the enchantment of Split. Delve into the historic city center built around Roman Emperor Diocletian's Palace and see its Renaissance and Gothic structures.

Weather
Boasting a year - round mild Mediterranean climate, a mild spring and autumn along the coast but cold and snowy winter in the center and north.

Korana River
Plitvice Lakes National Park is home to the source of the Korana River, located in an area surrounded by dense forests of beech, fir and spruce. There are several caves in the park that you can explore.

Plitvice Lakes National Park
This is Croatia's best-known national park and the only one of eight that is listed on the UNESCO List of World Heritage sites. The main attractions of this park are the 16 small lakes which are connected by waterfalls created by the sedimentation of travertine, a specific type of limestone.

Yachts
Yachts sail the azure blue waters of the Adriatic enjoying the sunny and warm temperatures.

Croatian cuisine
Croatian seafood dishes include: Squid-Croatian: lignje, Italian: calamari, grilled, fried, stuffed or prepared as stew and served with polenta.

Sprawling flat plains in the east and hills with snow-capped mountains to the north.

Croatian Clothes
Much like the men, the women's dress consists of clothing worn over more clothing: a white blouse, skirt or tunic is most common, with a colorful apron consisting of complicated geometric patterns and fringe worn over, as well as a red vest with gold stitching made in a way to make it stand out from the white blouse.

Croatian Drink
Croatia is both a beer - and a wine - drinking culture. Spirits, too, but these spirits are mainly variations on rakija, clear brandy created from various fruit, nuts, even mistletoe.