HIGHLIGHTS

Private guided half day walking tour with visit of the Mole Antonelliana and Museum of Cinema

Stroll through the elegant streets and piazzas lined with noble palazzi before reaching the Mole Antonelliana, Turin's tallest and most recognizable landmark. Originally built as a synagogue, today it houses the National Museum of Cinema. A glass elevator whisks you up 312 feet in the air for a breathtaking, 360-degree view of Turin and the snow-covered Alps beyond. End your tour with a stop for an aperitif at the historic Cafe Pepino.

Private full day guided excursion to the Langhe region, including wine tasting

Enjoy all the best that Piedmont has to offer on this full day private excursion. Start from Alba, the so-called capital of the Langhe Hills. Visit Barolo, the town that gives its name to the "King of Wines and Wine of Kings". Here, we will stop at a traditional wine cellar for a tasting of three different wines. Continue to the old town of La Morra, where you will enjoy the magnificent view of the Langhe region from its "Belvedere Square". The last stop will be in Serralunga d'Alba, a small Piedmontese hamlet dominated by the slender and majestic Castle of Serralunga. Considered to be one of the best-conserved examples of 14th century noble castles in Piedmont, this castle represents a unique piece of history in Italy with the architectural structure of a French donjon.
